submitted to the court that the only securities to be taken care of under the reorganization plan were those issued honestly and for true value, the whole proceeds of which had gone into the property of the corporation. Decision Starts Speculation.

The decision of the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court, which reversed the ruling of the Public Service Commission on the reorganization plan submitted to it by the bondholders' committee of the Third Avenue Railroad Company, will probably be carried to the highest court for final interpretation. Although William R. Willcox, chairman of the commission, declined to discuss the decision yesterday, the Impression was gained from various members of the commission that they intended to have the matter brought before the Court of Appeals. The fact that the Public Service Commission has thus
